

DRAFT BOARD STANDS BY INDUCTION BAN

Meandering Along the Main Stem By WASH FAYETTE

A news writer must always be on guard against using the same word too many times in a paragraph or story, because there are usually many other words to express the same thing.

Whenever I think of using the same word time after time I recall an amusing incident that occurred here a number of years ago, and involved a well known colored resident.

It seems that the man was to take one of the leading roles in a church play and that two or three out-of-town people were to take the other roles.

The man was wearing a suit with red trousers cut off well above his knees, and when he learned that the out-of-towners could not be present, he stepped upon the platform and, addressing the large audience, said:

"The participants who were to participate in the performance will not participate because the participants will not be here." His announcement brought roars of enjoyment from the audience.

Here's a little yarn that is certainly "ducky" to say the least, and I think I will give it to you in the letter I received, apparently from a neighbor woman. Here it is:

"I've heard you talk about being all out for the war effort. I'd like to tell you about one hen duck owned by Norman Baxia, an eighth grader, of Greenfield, and what she has done to help the meat situation.

"She hatched out 14 baby ducks early, which Norman has sold. She set the duck again and hatched 8 and now she's setting again on 16 eggs she has laid herself. All in all Norman expects to pocket $40 from one duck."

If anyone can beat this duck story, we'll have a duck dinner, and you bring the ducks.

I wonder if there is as much "eavesdropping" on party telephone lines as there used to be, so I asked a farmer friend who is on a line with a number of other folks.

"There seems to be just about as much as ever, although most of our folks are good neighbors and don't listen in," he said, and then continued:

"But we have one person on our line who rarely misses a call and the click of the receiver coming down is frequent and it never goes up until the conversation on the line is over."

I wondered whether "eavesdropping" was a good word to use in mentioning the folks who pry into other people's business by listening to telephone conversations not meant for their ears and also to find how the term originated.

This is what Webster's Dictionary says about it:

"To stand under the eaves, near a window or at the door of a house to listen and learn what is said within doors; hence to listen secretly to what is said in private."

Regarding eavesdropping, Webster also says: "Act of one who eavesdrops, which, if done habitually, is a common law nuisance."

I am also reminded of the old saying (which some of you eavesdroppers will agree is correct) that "eavesdroppers never hear any good of themselves." I guess the reason for the old saying is apparent!

DAYTON MAN NAMED TO SUCCEED GEIGER

Probate Court Judge To Go To Appeals

COLUMBUS, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today appointed Probate Judge William G. Wiseman of Montgomery County (Dayton) to the Second District Court of Appeals, succeeding the late Judge Frank W. Geiger. The appointment is effective October 22.

The governor said he also would appoint a probate judge to succeed Judge Wiseman on the same date. Judge Wiseman will serve until his successor on the Appeals Court is elected in November, 1946, and qualified. Wiseman, in Columbus, said he would seek election to the two-year term of the six-year term.

TAX CUT BILL BEING SPEEDED TO SHOWDOWN

Generosity With Foreign Countries Hits Snag as Policies Attacked

By MAX HALL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—In Congress today the Senate fights over a Truman appointment and around the Capitol there are whirlpools of agitation over U. S. foreign policy, while the House speeded up action on its tax cutting bill.

Groups of law-makers asserted themselves in the international scene—with regard to atomic energy, foreign loans and U. S. military goods piled up overseas.

The Senate prepared to take up the case of Raymond S. McKeough of Chicago. It has the right to vote yes or no on his appointment to the Maritime Commission by President Truman.

The Senate commerce committee has voted against him, 10 to 7. Some members didn't like his being an employee of the CIO Political Action Committee. This is the first big political fight over anyone named to office by Mr. Truman.

Several members of the House military committee made a determined effort to include foreign policy in the atomic energy bill which relates only to the control of atomic development inside the U. S.

U. S. Generosity Curtailed
As the committee argued over the bill in secret session, most Republican members and a few Democrats were trying to write into it that U. S. officials must go easy on any atomic dealings with other countries. The officials would be prohibited from giving atomic bomb knowledge to foreigners without approval of Congress.

On the question of loans, there is widespread congressional feeling that America should win some concessions from Britain and Russia before lending them money.

The House committee on post-war economic policy made a proposal of that sort yesterday. Congressmen today expressed warm support for the idea. An administration official who would not permit use of his name said:

GIRL HUNTS SAILOR WHO GAVE HER KISS

Incident on Bus Leads to 'Real Thing,' She Says

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Oct. 11.—(AP)—A Bridgeport, O., girl wrote the editor of the Hagerstown Herald today asking him to help find the sailor who kissed her while riding on a bus.

Apparently she wants to further the romance and not bawl him out, the editor explained.

"I don't go around kissing people just for a habit," wrote the young woman, "but this looks like the real thing."

She said the sailor kissed her and soon thereafter left the bus at Hagerstown while she continued to Wheeling, W. Va., from Washington, D. C.

"Please, Mr. Editor, won't you put something in the paper that will help me find him?" she asked.

Turmoil in Argentina Not Cleared By Revolt

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Gen. Eduardo AVALOS, commander of the powerful Campo de Mayo garrison, took over the Argentine War Ministry today as the power behind the military government, but there were indications Col. Juan Peron, though divested of his cabinet status, remained a strong factor in the political situation.

Only a few hours after the government had accepted Peron's resignation as vice president, war minister and minister of labor and social welfare, he delivered a speech last night to an enthusiastic crowd in which he pledged the remainder of his life "to the cause of the working man."

Mine Strike Spreads As Agreement Fails

Fresh Disputes Break Out in Variety of Industries To Raise Ranks of Strike-idle Workers to Nearly 450,000

TOKYO, Oct. 11.—(AP)—General MacArthur met the new head of the Japanese government—Premier Baron Kijuro Shidehara—for the first time today and gave him instructions for wide social and political reforms which will require liberalization of the Japanese constitution.

MacArthur put it squarely up to Shidehara to take prompt and "vigorous" action to see that the Japanese people are clothed, fed and housed during the winter.

The meeting, at MacArthur's headquarters and initiated by Shidehara after he had called on the emperor, came shortly after the Allied Supreme Commander had directed the Japanese government to report within 90 days all foreign exchange assets, including private holdings and foreign properties of the Imperial household.

GI RETURNS HOME
TO ATTEND FUNERAL
MORGANFIELD, Ky., Oct. 11.—(AP)—The homecoming today of Pvt. William H. Garrett, 23, from the European war theater was far different from most of the GIs.

Rushed to New York on a plane bearing Gen. Mark Clark, Garrett was flown last night to Sturgis, Ky., airfield to attend the funeral of his entire family.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leslie Garrett, and his six brothers and sisters were killed last Saturday in an automobile accident near Providence, Ky. This afternoon they will be buried.

CREW-LESS FLIGHT IS PLANNED FRIDAY

DAYTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The Army tomorrow will give the nation a peep at the possible "push-button war" of the future by making its first publicly-disclosed inter-city flight of a radio-controlled airplane.

The crewless ship will lift from Lockbourne Army Air Base south of Columbus, fly to Wright Field here and land, with every move controlled by radio operators aboard a "mother" plane.

It will be a preview feature of the "air force fair" this week end at Wright Field, the Army's principle air laboratory.

Movieland Showdown
In Hollywood, the picketing of Warner Brothers Studio appeared headed for a showdown. Movie strike leaders called 20,000 AFL aircraft workers into the picket lines at the studio's main gate and 500 officers were summoned to maintain order. Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz said if the aircraft workers picketed the studio they would be subject to immediate arrest.

A spokesman for the aircraft workers said they would join the picket lines "to prevent unjustified beatings by members of Warner's police when they appear as peaceful pickets." More than 100 persons have been injured in clashes at the studio, which stemmed from the eight-month-old jurisdictional dispute between two AFL unions over representation of 77 set decorators. Yesterday 328 pickets were arrested but later were released.

There was no improvement in the serious strike of 35,000 to 60,000 AFL longshoremen in New York harbor.

CROP OUTLOOK STILL NOT BAD

Good Yields Anticipated in Spite of Reverses, However

COLUMBUS, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Unfavorable weather caused the Ohio crop reporting service today to revise downward its October 1 forecasts for late maturing crops but good yields were predicted, nonetheless.

Corn was expected to average 49 bushels an acre for a total of 176,988,000 bushels, exceeded only in 1942.

A yield of 19 bushels an acre was foreseen for soybeans and a total crop of 22,591,000 bushels.

Rainy, humid weather since mid-September, the report said, delayed ripening of corn and left it vulnerable to frost damage.

Drought conditions in August and early September apparently interfered with the setting and filling of soybeans, the service said. Current wet weather has increased the danger of loss from moldy beans, it added.

The prospective yield of 120 bushels an acre for potatoes will be the largest since 1941. Production is expected to be 7,560,000 bushels.

Total sugar beet production was set at 220,000 tons on the basis of 10.5 tons an acre.

The commercial apple crop, forecast at 1,230,000 bushels, will be the smallest on record. Grapes also were expected to yield the shortest crop on record. Total production was set at 5,000 tons.

Peach production in 1945 was 750,000 bushels, compared with 1,095,000,000 last year.

OKINAWA IS LASHED BY TYPHOON, REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—John Adams, CBS correspondent, said in a broadcast from Manila today that 90,000 soldiers had been left without quarters, five killed and a score wounded in the typhoon which struck Okinawa Island Tuesday.

Several correspondents on the first plane to take off from Okinawa since the storm reported "damage so great that, had it come a month earlier, it could well have changed the entire pattern of our occupation," Adams said.

Controls Tightened
Allied headquarters announced revocation of permission to the Japanese to operate an air courier and liaison transport service. The job will be taken over by American airmen.

Cost of the war to Japan from July, 1937, to its end was indicated by the commercial daily paper, Nippon Dango, which said the Japanese funded borrowings at the end of July, 1945, amounted to 114,289,000,000 yen ($6,619,226,666).

As the conferences continued, new pits closed, and the coal shortage hit harder at steel production. West Virginia's idle jumped to 78,400 and production dropped to less than a fourth of its daily output of 600,000 tons; 60,475 were out in Pennsylvania pits and the loss was 323,000 tons daily. In Kentucky the strikes kept 27,200 away from work; 8,000 each in Ohio and Tennessee and 5,000 in Indiana.

All Foreign Assets Ordered Reported When New Premier Calls On MacArthur for Instructions -- Return of Yanks To Be Speeded Up With Reduction of Occupation Force

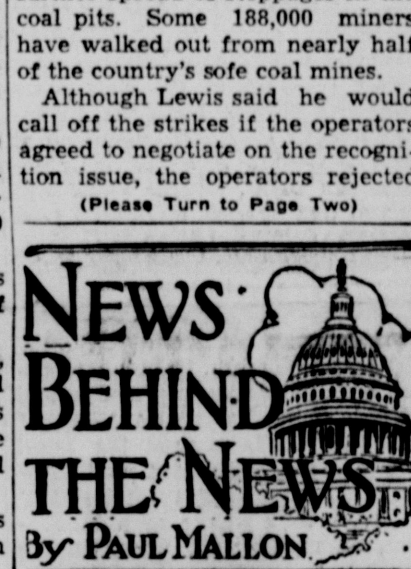

(By the Associated Press)
The nation's strike lines held at around the 450,000 mark today as fresh labor disputes almost offset the return of 42,000 workers to jobs in textile plants.

As new shutdowns in the six-state soft coal strike area forced additional thousands into idleness, bituminous operators and United Mine Workers Union representatives failed to agree on a compromise proposal to end the 21-day work stoppages.

Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach again summoned the conferees into session today to attempt to settle the dispute between the operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers. The disputants, he said, are not far apart in their controversy over recognition of the UMW Foremen's Union.

Report to President
Schwellenbach reported to President Truman today on the deadlocked soft coal strike situation, but said the President sent no message to the conferees who are seeking a settlement. Failure of settlement is expected to see a further spread of stoppages in the coal pits. Some 188,000 miners have walked out from nearly half of the country's soft coal mines.

Although Lewis said he would call off the strikes if the operators agreed to negotiate on the recognition issue, the operators rejected (Please Turn to Page Two)

WAGE CONTROL LIFT CALLED ADVISABLE

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Many reconversion officials are "pretty well agreed" today the government soon must loosen its wage controls.

This is reported by one of Director John W. Snyder's advisers, although there is no indication the conclusion is shared by Snyder or by President Truman.

Three officials of Snyder's office of war mobilization and reconversion—all of whom asked anonymity—said the economists and advisers in that agency are nearly unanimous in support of a new government policy declaration.

Copies of the board's telegram sent Col. Coble Wednesday were mailed by the draft board here to Senators Robert A. Taft and James W. Huffman and to Clarence J. Brown who represents this district in Congress.

'GO BACK HOME' NINE MEN TOLD AS THEY REPORT

Reactions of Inductees Are Mixed—State Officers Here Take No Action

The Fayette County Draft Board today stood by its decision to stop further inductions until "action is taken to stop all major strikes."

The nine 18 year old boys who reported for induction at 8 A. M. Thursday were told "you can go home now" by Howard D. Fogle, the draft board chairman. A little confused about the board's action, the boys left to return to their jobs and to their homes.

Those who reported were Carl David Gardner, Gene Edwin Bowshier, George Bernard Buck, Willard Wiscup, Earl Dean Streitenberger, Joseph Marlin Aills, Clarence Earl Ehrhart, Victor Rohde and Robert Marshall Meriweather.

After checking to make sure all the boys were there, Fogle said, "well, boys, you have fulfilled your duty by reporting here. As you probably know, we have refused to induct any more men until these strikes are taken care of."

Explanation Given
Then he told of the nearly two-hour meeting Wednesday afternoon with Col. Clay M. Donner and Lt. Col. W. P. Averill from the State Selective Service Headquarters. "They told us we were all wrong and we told them we were going ahead with it," Fogle said of the meeting. "We stuck to our guns and you can go home now," he said, adding a reminder that any of the nine could volunteer for service. "We hope we haven't disappointed any of you," he said in closing.

Both Army officers declined to make any comment.

Wiscup, the only father in the group, wanted to know what consequences if any there would be. He was told that the Draft Board was assuming all responsibility for the action.

No resignations of the Draft Board were asked or offered at the Wednesday afternoon meeting, it was said Thursday morning.

In Columbus, Col. C. W. Goble, State Selective Service director, indicated there would be more investigation of the Draft Board's precedent-setting action. He did not say whether or not any more conferences had been slated with the board here. National Selective Service Headquarters at Washington, D. C. declined comment because it had not been informed of the situation. Col. Goble said he would not "tell anybody anything until we find out more about it."

Copies of the board's telegram sent Col. Coble Wednesday were mailed by the draft board here to Senators Robert A. Taft and James W. Huffman and to Clarence J. Brown who represents this district in Congress.

MAN IS INJURED BADLY IN WRECK NEAR THIS CITY

No Hospital Service Could Be Obtained for Badly Injured Man

When Joseph W. Riley, 76, of Coopersville, Ohio, was critically injured in a wreck on the Chillicothe Highway late Wednesday evening, no hospital space in any of the surrounding cities could be found, so it was necessary to remove him to the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis LeMaster, in this city. Riley was injured when his car got beyond control on the highway opposite the Lewis Parrett Farm, five miles southeast of Washington C. H., and overturned in the ditch, being completely wrecked. Riley was found unconscious and brought to this city in the Cox and Parrett ambulance, cared for by Dr. J. H. Persinger and then removed to the LeMaster home here. His left ear was torn almost completely off, and he sustained cuts and bruises and other injuries of a serious nature. Efforts made to obtain hospital service failed after repeated long distance calls were made.

NEW CONTROLS, REFORMS CLAMPED DOWN ON JAPAN ON MACARTHUR'S ORDERS

the proposal. They said if they negotiated, they wanted to protect their present opposition to bringing the foremen into the Lewis Union. They maintain foremen and other supervisory employees are part of management.

The reforms which MacArthur told Shidehara must be made in carrying out surrender terms included votes for women, labor unionization, liberalization of education, abolition of all secret government police and revision of industrial monopolies.

Finances Untangling
The stated purpose of the recent financial directives is to assure that all Japanese owned foreign holdings and gold, silver and platinum reserves "would be available for such purposes as the Allies might direct."

The new directive gave the government, its agencies, and the Imperial household 30 days to file reports. All banks, trust companies, security brokers and other financial institutions were given 45 days.

Four of Japan's big industrialists held a press conference today at which they expressed fears "Japanese Communists are waiting for the proper time to rise." Yesterday, in celebrating the MacArthur-ordered release of political prisoners, 600 Communists paraded to a point in front of occupation headquarters. On their way, they deliberately turned their backs on—instead of bowing toward—the emperor's palace.

WORLD TODAY

—By DEWITT MACKENZIE—

There are several highly important implications in Secretary Byrnes' announcement that the United States has called a meeting of the proposed Far Eastern Advisory Commission for October 23 in Washington.

Foremost among these is the clear indication that Uncle Sam has his chin up (but not out) and is standing on his prerogatives in the matter of Japan's reformation and rehabilitation. Along with this he is backing up his good and faithful servant, Supreme Commander MacArthur. Equally important is America's desire for advice from her Allies in working out the Japanese problem. And last but not least, there are great potentialities in the possibility that India may be invited to join the advisory commission.

Mr. Byrnes has given MacArthur a mighty fine vote of confidence. It would have come as a shock to the average citizen if the secretary had said other than that the government has no intention of altering MacArthur's status as supreme commander in Japan. It would have been surprising, too, if Byrnes hadn't confessed that he doesn't know of any complaints about the way the general has been doing his job.

MacArthur was assigned one of the most delicate and dangerous of the post-war tasks. If anybody could work faster than he has in disarming close to 3,000,000 Jap troops with a handful of Yanks, even to making the Mikado wait on him, hat in hand—it would be a privilege to meet him.

Mr. Byrnes' remarks about MacArthur came in connection with Russia's suggestion that the establishment of a control council for Japan should precede the creation of the advisory commission. He doesn't favor such a move, since it obviously would mean either replacing the general or lowering his status as supreme commander.

The idea of inviting India to join the advisory commission is of far-reaching importance. Nine nations already have been invited to join with America in the Washington meeting—Russia, Britain, China, France, Canada, Australia, the Netherlands, New Zealand and the Philippines. England has suggested that India be included. The United States has agreed and has passed the suggestion on to Russia and China for their decisions.

The raising of India's name has a double significance. In the first place I believe we can take it as an especially friendly gesture towards this great British possession by England's new Socialist government. One of the main planks in the government's platform is to do all possible to implement Britain's promise of Dominion Status for India, and the London cabinet already has started work on this program. So one likes to look on the proposal regarding the advisory commission as the rainbow of great promise for India's future.

I visited India during the war, and know that it was her ambition to secure at least a provisional government which would enable her to take her place among the United Nations—as an ally in her own right. She has in fact been an invaluable ally, but it has hurt her not to have this rank in her own name.

Should she be given a place now on the advisory commission it would help remove some of the sting. It would do more than that, for it would tend to lessen the suspicions of the Orient—even includ-

Boss' Banquet Is Slated Next Tuesday at the Country Club

In a talk before the Business and Professional Women's Club at its annual Boss' Banquet on October 16, at the Country Club, Robert C. Clark of Cleveland resident telephone manager for The Ohio Bell Telephone Company at Crile General Hospital, will tell about the part the telephone plays in the lives of wounded servicemen at the Army hospital.

In addition to describing the telephone company's setup at the hospital, he will tell of various incidents, ranging from pathos to humor, in connection with the calls of the wounded veterans to their homes in all parts of the country.

Clark originally hailed from Akron, where he attended South High School. After attending the B. F. Goodrich Company sales school, he entered that company's advertising department, where he arranged advertising and displays for conventions, auto shows and special demonstrations throughout the country.

After five years with the Goodrich Company, Clark went to Cleveland to the purchasing department of the old Ohio State Telephone Company. Subsequently he worked for Armour and Company, the American Motor Body Company in Detroit, the Detroit Times, the Akron Times-Press, the Canton News, and the Cleveland Times. A ll of his newspaper positions were in the advertising department.

In 1928 Clark joined the Akron

ing India and China—about the intentions of the western world towards the East. There is a feeling in many quarters that the Atlantic Charter is intended for the west and not the east, and that the latter is to be left out of the picture.

That feeling must be dissipated if we are to avoid the formation of an anti-western bloc in the east. Here is a chance to aid that aim.

atomic bomb which might make it safe to give the secret then to the world, or how a scientist could figure Russia would press the button in ten years but would not do it now if let in on the secret. My private checking indicates Congress is overwhelmingly favorlems. There is first the problem of defense, of honorable peace maintenance, in this new world. The newspapers and magazines have published photographs, with nations and seas pulled out of their normal geographical shape to show we are in that kind of a world now. But our thinking has not fully grasped the fact. Developments have not occurred which would permit our people—and indeed many of our government officials—to see it plainly, so that they would act upon it firmly.

Mr. Roosevelt once shocked the country by saying our frontier was on the Rhine. Do you know where it is now? It is Minneapolis, Duluth, the Great Lakes cities. It is beyond them in the wastes of Canada, the frozen north. Take a round globe, set it on the floor and look at it while standing over it. If we want to build our new air-forts of defense, there is where they must be.

There are only two nations in the world with military where-withal, Russia and the United States and the frontier between them is the territory described above. Mariners used to speak of the great circle route across the North Atlantic as the greatest international highway of the world, and it was before this war. The new great circle route coming in from Europe to the Midwest is now the world's greatest highway, and it is a high way. It runs up to 30,000 and 40,000 feet in the stratosphere.

Land armies of the future can be flown that way as well as great commerce and many people. Directed missiles can come that way—the rockets. If the button is ever pushed in Moscow, what it sends off to destroy every American man, woman and child would come that way. Our nets and screens must then be put out that way. Our radar must be beamed there. We ourselves must look that way, and not across the seas where the route is twice as far and nature affords protection.

As attack is a weapon of defense, our strategy would be deficient and as backward as Pearl Harbor if it did not look that way also.

Old times, old ways are gone forever. We need fresh imaginative unbound brains to work on these problems of defense, particularly a single department of the armed forces, if only to shake off the traditions of the past and shock our military men into making their best efforts, our scientists must show the same in-bound imagination in their realm of search for the answers in the new world—research.

Now do not call this new great road the highway of tomorrow. It is the highway of today. We are already at that point. We are there. We can see it. We can see it far more clearly than the future of the atomic era, yet unexplored. It may be a long way from the road to Damascus, but there it is.

Mrs. George Pensyl Hostess To Cecilians Wednesday; Varied Program Enjoyed

"'Tis Autumn," Is Theme for Program of Music And Readings with Mrs. Charles Hire as Program Chairman; Five Hostesses Prepared Tea Table

"'Tis Autumn" was the theme chosen for the second meeting of the Cecilians held at the home of Mrs. George Pensyl Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

After a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. J. Rankin Paul, the president, Mrs. Charles S. Hire, the program chairman, was introduced.

She first presented Mrs. Harry Craig, recently transferred to active membership, who read a group of poems on autumn. Her selections ranged from Whittier to Ogden Nash and she read each poem or excerpt from a poem with an appropriate introduction.

The string trio—Mrs. George Pensyl, piano; Mrs. Otis Core, violin and Mrs. Robert Parrett, cello—opened and closed the musical portion of the program. The trio's first group was "Autumn" by Tchaikowsky and "By the Bend of the River," Clara Edwards. Always a popular musical group, the trio received enthusiastic applause after each number. Massenet's "Elegie" and "Trees" by Oscar Rosback were the two compositions, both sensitively played, with which the trio ended the program.

Mrs. Fred Ensen, soprano, chose "Autumn Leaves" by Charles Wakefield Cadman and "In Autumn," by Robert Franz as her solos for the evening. Her interpretation of both songs was an expressive one and the sad "In Autumn" was received especially well. Mrs. Mary Jean Schwaigert was her accompanist.

A second group of solos included "Ah, Love But A Day," by Beach and "The Last Rose of Summer" by Flotow, both well suited to Mrs. Maynard Icenhower's rich voice. Mrs. Icenhower was accompanied by Mrs. Pensyl. The popular "On the Trail" from Ferde Grofe's Grand Canyon Suite was the piano duet Mrs. Marian Gage and her daughter, Mrs. Schwaigert, chose as their contribution to the program. The arrangement was an interesting one and well played.

The last vocal numbers on the program were two duets, "Wanderer's Night Song" by Rubenstein and "A Brown Bird Singing" by Haydn Wood, sung by Mrs. Ensen and Miss Martha Berend. Mrs. Schwaigert was their accompanist.

At the beginning of the meeting, Mrs. Paul announced the district conference at Springfield and asked that reservations be made by Wednesday. She also asked the members to continue to save sales tax stamps.

Mrs. Harry Craig, Mrs. Robert Eppley and Mrs. John Rhoades have become active members and Miss Rosemary Cox, Miss Susan Hughey and Miss Fannie Brown are now associate members of the organization, Mrs. Paul said.

At the end of the program, the guests were invited to an attractive tea table. Mrs. Leonard Korn poured from the silver tea service at one end of the lace-covered table which was centered with an arrangement of autumn flowers. Dainty sandwiches and tea cakes were arranged on trays placed on the table which was lighted with candles.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. G. B. Vance, Mrs. Parrett, Mrs. O. D. Farquhar, Miss Golda Cummings and Mrs. Pensyl.

New Officers for Beta Circle Are Installed Here

Mrs. E. K. McCoy graciously opened her home to members of the newly-formed Beta Circle (C.C.L.) on Wednesday evening, her assisting hostess being Mrs. Earl Fisher. In the absence of the Alpha Circle president, Mrs. Arch Newbrey, who was to install the officers of the new chapter, Mrs. Howard Foster, vice-president, made an efficient leader for the evening.

After answering roll call by giving the names and ages of their children, the members heard a secretarial report given by Mrs. A. E. Weatherly of their organization meeting. Mrs. Ora Middleton read a letter from state C.C.L. headquarters which contained much valuable information.

Mrs. Paul Mohr had prepared a paper on "A Parent's Prayer" which she gave before the interested members. Mrs. Michael Helfrich read a touching poem after which Mrs. Foster made a few appropriate remarks wishing the new chapter success.

Mrs. Foster then invited the new officers of Beta Circle to the McCoy dining room where the table was centered with a watergarden of fall flowers, flanked by tall white tapers which were lighted for the installation ceremonies.

The officers made their pledges. They are: president, Mrs. Michael Helfrich; vice-president, Mrs. E. K. McCoy; secretary, Mrs. Robert Miller; treasurer, Mrs. G. C. Crouse; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Gene Hard.

The new officers then took over their duties for the remainder of the meeting. It was voted to give a sizeable amount to the National War Fund, during their current drive for funds.

Two committees appointed by Mrs. Helfrich were: home committee, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. Paul Merz and Mrs. Caryl Williams; program committee, Mrs. Carl Wilt, Mrs. Ray Warner and Mrs. Paul Mohr.

Mrs. Helfrich then listed the ten achievements that the club should accomplish this year, and she also gave the government and purposes of the club, much to the interest of the members.

Mrs. Billie Wilson is hostess for the October twenty-fourth meeting when her assisting hostess will be Mrs. Caryl Williams.

At this meeting, it was voted to meet the second and fourth Wednesday of each month.

New members present for the session included Mrs. Robert Palmer, Mrs. Howard Preston, Mrs. James Shoemaker, Mrs. Caryl Williams and Mrs. Paul Merz.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess and her assistant served tempting refreshments to the group who then visited informally for a short time.

Missionary Society Holds First Meeting of Year with Mrs. Howard Foster

The Comrades of the Second Mile Missionary Society held their first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Howard Foster of Bloomington. Mrs. Alice Cory was assisting hostess.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. Alice Cory; vice president, Mrs. Howard Foster; secretary, Mrs. Edgar McIntosh; and treasurer, Miss Ilo Larimer. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

RECONVERSION TO BE FINISHED BY SPRING -- IF

Labor Disputes One of Big Disputes -- Government Spending Easing Up

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—America, facing the toughest reconversion hurdles between now and spring, will complete the transition from war to peace late in 1946--if all goes well.

Chairman J. A. Krug predicted this today at the 100th and final meeting of the War Production Board. He said the decline in national income and in production would be halted early next year.

Krug stressed, however, that his forecasts were based "on the assumption of an orderly reconversion."

"They would have to be modified," he said, "in the event of prolonged and widespread labor disputes, extensive hoarding (of materials) serious disruption of price structure, or other unforeseen circumstances."

The WPB chief reported that during the five years beginning in July, 1940, this country doubled its manufacturing output to hurt more than $186,000,000,000 of munitions against the Axis.

This was done, Krug said, by "superimposing war production on normal production, rather than substituting guns for butter."

Spending To Shrink
In a report titled "wartime achievements and the reconversion outlook," Krug told the board that for the rest of this year government expenditures will shrink faster than business and private outlays can increase.

Krug, who will retire from government when WPB is liquidated November 3, predicted that during the first three months of next year national income will level off at about $155,000,000,000, as compared with $207,000,000 when Germany surrendered. That will be the turning point, he said.

Krug estimated that three or four years of uninterrupted supply will be required to meet pent up demand for some goods.

"This," he said, "could readily warrant operations well above prewar levels in these industries for some years to come."

The WPB chief did not estimate the maximum extent of joblessness, but he predicted unemployment would increase until spring, then decline.

Key to Problem
The key to reconversion, and the "big question mark," is in the heavy industries which were changed over completely to war production, Krug said. He stated:

"It is difficult to make predictions about automobile production until the Detroit labor situation clarifies."

The period of widespread shortages has come to an end, Krug said. The country now has more aluminum and magnesium "than we know what to do with," enough copper and steel to satisfy demand.

Rubber—Sufficient for tires for new cars, but it will "take a little time" before replacement needs of cars on the road can be met in full.

Leather—Plentiful, "and it will show up in due course in increased quantities of civilian shoes."

Lumber—More than enough for current quarter requirements."

Textiles—"It will take the industry a long time to satisfy demand."

Building materials (other than lumber) and plumbing and heating supplies—very scarce, but "active steps are being taken to expand supply."

Paper—Imports of pulp from Sweden are relieving shortages, except in newsprint, "which for a little time must continue to be restricted to recent levels of consumption."

The most serious remaining shortages are in tin, lead, natural rubber, manila fiber and antimony, Krug said.

"I looked carefully, last year, when my first set of tires wore out. You'd be surprised how many of the gang on my shift rode back-and-forth to the plant on Riversides. NOT because Riversides happened to come on their cars, but because they deliberately chose them."

Yes, in the past 33 years, millions of motorists have chosen Riversides, in preference to all other brands! Why? For the same reason that makes so many car-owners switch to Riversides, today:—

HORRORS OF JAP PRISON RELATED BY SID STEWART

Soldier Known Here Is One Of Few Survivors Among Thousands

Fayette Countians who may be inclined to give the Japs a "soft" peace should read part of a letter which was written by a soldier known in Fayette County, who was captured at Bataan, and held by the Japs, going through all kinds of torture, for four years.

He is Sgt. Sidney J. Stewart, Jr., whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stewart, reside at Watonga, Okla., and whose mother is the former Jane Worley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Worley, who resided in Washington C. H. for many years. Sgt. Stewart is a nephew of Mrs. Ella Courts, of this city.

Sgt. Stewart was released from a Japanese prison a few weeks ago, and is one of the few survivors of thousands of American soldiers who were taken prisoner by the Japs, and starved or tortured to death during the four long, horrible years.

Sgt. Stewart was liberated in August, by the Russians at Mukden, Manchuria, and at that time weighed only 90 pounds, but is improving rapidly.

In a recent letter to his parents, he writes:

"You see all of my friends have died or were murdered in the last few months by the Japanese. I was locked in a room in Japan in February with 48 other men and left to freeze or starve. Two of us came out alive and the other man will be a raving maniac until he dies.

"Last December they loaded 3,000 of us on two ships, but only 230 of us made it to Japan alive. I don't know how I made it when I look back, but this might interest you. Once I was hung up by the thumbs for 48 hours, for stealing a potato. I was hungry. The boys told me when they were allowed to cut me down, that I was out of my head, but I kept repeating over and over 'I'm gonna go home—I'm gonna go home.'

"I have had malaria 48 times, beri beri, pellagra, scurvy and general malnutrition, and pneumonia twice. But the doctors tell me I have an amazing resistance and will be practically normal in a few months.

"I will be able to show four Purple Hearts, two Silver Stars, three Presidential Citations, four Unit Citations, and a string of bright colored ribbons that I am not sure myself yet what they stand for—also some Bronze Stars.

"I certainly have a lot to learn to bring me up to date. You see I didn't even know we had a different president until three weeks ago."

MARTIAL LAW ENDS

He Loves America for Two Reasons

Chinese Businessman Appreciates Help in Liberation . . . And Products of Factories

By HAL BOYLE
SINGAPORE—(AP)—Mr. Cheng is in love with America.

He thinks of America as a place of production—a country whose rich sleek motor cars and shining white electric refrigerators roll endlessly from vast factories. And Mr. Cheng's dream is to sell those American products in the Orient. Any American products.

He is a typical Chinese businessman—small, neatly dressed in the fashion of the western world, friendly, well-educated and alert to all political and commercial trends. Mr. Cheng is a linguist. He was born in Java and came to Singapore several years ago. He knew no English, but learned it by himself. Now he speaks it effortlessly and without strong accent.

He owns a typewriter repair firm and deals in stationery supplies and books and has a half dozen other irons in the fire. He has a small plantation and is beginning to dabble in rubber. Busy as he is, Mr. Cheng will interrupt his own affairs at any time to talk business with visiting Americans or to help them in any way. If you want to go anywhere, he says "take my car." The Americans helped China and Mr. Cheng is so grateful he wants to do anything to befriend any Americans he meets.

His greatest desire in life is to visit the United States.

"I want to see your country most of all," he says. "I would like to see your factories and talk to your business men. I would make many arrangements. I like to deal with Americans. You are honest and pay a fair price and you have many things to sell."

Mr. Cheng's eyes look like melting butter whenever he talks of markets for American products in the Far East.

"Take just fountain pens," he said. "We can't begin to get enough of them. And flashlights—and all the little things you make so well. There is no limit; if I could just get the goods here!"

Mr. Cheng has his own trading company and is an exporter as well as an importer. He is willing to handle any commodity, but his fondest goal is to corner the American magazine market in the Indonesian countries.

"People here particularly like your picture magazines," said Mr. Cheng, who himself is something of a scholar and prefers the printed page. His favorite reading material right now is American sales catalogs.

"Anything you make in America can find a market here now," he said. "You just cable me what you have and at what price and I will cable you back how many to ship me. Business is simple."

50-Mile Area Rocked By Explosion in Mine

VERNAL, Utah, Oct. 11—(AP)—Two distinct explosions from the heart of the large Bonanza Gilsonite mine rocked the earth for a distance of 50 miles last night but miraculously spared the 250 residents of Bonanza, isolated mining town near the Utah-Colorado border.

Flames destroyed utility buildings adjacent to the mine shaft and mineral treating plant. Virtually all homes and community buildings of the modern mining town, however, were undamaged. Residents fled Bonanza when a warning was issued that the entire community faced inevitable destruction.

Cause of the blast was not determined immediately, but Sheriff Ronald Preece said it could have been defective blasting powder.

HOOVER STRIKE ENDS; 2,000 GO BACK TO JOBS

NORTH CANTON, Oct. 11—(AP)—Production of vacuum cleaners was resumed at the Hoover Co. plant here today as nearly 2,000 employees idled for a day by a walkout of CIO Unionists trooped back to their jobs.

The United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers walked out Monday following the suspension of two employees whom, company spokesmen said, were disciplined for "carelessness in breaking molds."

NOW SHE SHOPS "CASH AND CARRY" Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, lots of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

SUGGESTS AIDS IN PREVENTION OF FIRES HERE

Fire Prevention Week Being Observed Throughout The Nation

This is fire prevention week in the nation, and Fire Chief George R. Hall, is urging the public generally to observe a few general rules to lower the number of fires, thereby saving property loss and even human lives.

In a statement issued Monday giving facts and figures, Chief Hall says:

"This year the week of October 7th to 13th has been officially set aside and proclaimed as National Fire Prevention Week by the President of the United States.

"We should not only strive this week to prevent fires but that prevention should be followed by the other fifty-one weeks of each year.

"We should always keep in mind the needless loss of life and property caused by fire.

"Each year over 12,000 men, women and children lose their lives by fire in the United States and 35 percent of this number are children below 12 years of age.

"During the year of 1944 the property loss was over $390,000,000. This figure shows only the value of the physical property destroyed by fire.

"The official fire statistics do not take in account the destruction of the intangible assets which cannot be measured in accurate figures.

"Many times factories burn or suffer heavy loss by fire and of the facilities that are destroyed completely only about 40 per cent are ever rebuilt. This shows us that it not only means the loss of the building or factory but that it often happens during the worst time of the year, resulting in unemployment for many factory workers.

"It also proves to us that we should take every step to protect all that we now have, against the ravages of fire.

"We have often heard it said by many that we have insurance covering any loss by fire, but insurance fails to replace many things for us that are termed priceless or of which are not replaceable.

"Insurance is the modern method by which men make the uncertain certain, and the unequal equal. It is the means by which success is almost guaranteed. It is part charity and part business but all common sense. Through its operation the strong contribute to the support of the weak, the weak secure, not by favor, but by right, duly purchased, and paid for the support of the strong.

"We all help pay for the loss sustained by others as result of the misfortune of fire, just as we do for the misfortune of accident or death. But as before mentioned there are many priceless possessions lost by fire which cannot be replaced by insurance, to say nothing of the loss of life by fire which cannot be replaced at all, so we, as members of the fire department ask your full cooperation in the prevention of any needless loss by fire. We call upon Civic and Commercial organizations, school officials, the Boy Scouts and the press to emphasize the needless loss of life and property by one of our most destructive enemies 'FIRE'.

"It is the duty of the fire department to assist anyone, in any way in preventing a fire, we can offer many ways and means in the line of safety from fire, which if followed, will pay dividends during the years to come.

"We are ready at all times to fight the fires that do break out, but we feel that we have done a much better job if we can help folks prevent fires from starting at all.

"We will have many suggested helps during fire prevention week, and if followed, will do much to help make our city a safe place in which to live."

ANNUAL WHEAT TEST MADE IN FIELDS BY GENERAL MILLS, INC.

You undoubtedly know all about the "harvest hands" who follow the harvest every year to get to work in the fields when the grain is being harvested—but did you ever hear of a group of men who follow directly behind the heels of the harvest as it progresses from Texas to the Canadian border just to obtain and test representative wheat samples of each county in the wheat growing areas.

They're out there every year, and they're not collecting samples just for the fun of it. There's a purpose behind their work—to give you the best flour that can be milled.

These men represent the Products Control Department of General Mills, Inc., makers of Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Enriched Flour. Quality control is the chief responsibility of the Products Control Department, and the work is carried on by a technically trained staff in General Mills laboratories throughout the United States. Constant tests are made from the time the wheat is harvested in the fields until the products reach your home.

Each year the Wheat Survey crew starts its work at the beginning of the harvest in Texas and works north as the wheat matures and is harvested. Due to the speed of modern harvesting, there is not a minute of waste. Generally, it is necessary to work in three shifts of eight hours each to test all of the thousands of samples of wheat that are needed.

These samples are rushed to the nearest General Mills mill laboratory of which there are many—strategically located in the wheat growing areas. There, each sample is milled into flour in a small laboratory mill. This flour is put through many chemical tests and finally baked into bread to determine actual baking value.

Within 24 hours after the samples reach the laboratory all this valuable information is in the hands of the wheat buyers, whose highly important job it is to buy the best wheat available to be made into Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" flour.

Proper wheat selection, which is aided by the Wheat Survey, is the first and most important step in milling high grade flour.

Tigers New Baseball Champions

By SID FEDER
CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Baseball's takeoff on the nine old men—eight old men and a boy, in this case—brought the world championship back to Detroit today for the first time in 10 years, because the Chicago Cubs ran out of gas and pitchers.

That, plus some of the fanciest flinging of this fall frolics by Lefty Hal Newhouse, for a new series streakout record for seven games, meant the ball game and the set in the finale yesterday. Prince Hal was the boy in the cast—he is 24—and the boy turned out to be quite a man as he racked up his second win of the schedule. That was the story in yesterday's 9 to 3 payoff. Jolly Cholly Grimm was so desperate for pitchers, after using most of them Sunday and Monday, he had to come up with leaving Hank Borowy for his third consecutive game.

Good as Hank was in this series—he won twice and lost twice—the Tigers got to him early. They drove him from the hill after nine pitches which three Tigers converted into singles and one run. Five other Cub pitchers followed him to the mound. That's the way those doddering Detroiters were. They ran, mostly as if they were dragging their anchors, but their bats were loaded with explosives. The Tigers' hitting power when it was needed, and tight pitching in the pinches, was what made the Cubs lose their seventh series opportunity in 37 years after beating the Tigers in 1907-08. The Tigers—all the regulars except the pitchers are over 30—put on some great exhibitions of daffiness out there in the field from time to time. But when the final chips were down they picked them up with alacrity.

Hank Greenberg is a slowed-up

35 now, but he was the glamor boy of the series. He hammered one homer that won a game, another that kept his ball club in it; thumped three doubles in one tilt; scored seven runs and knocked in seven. He wound up with a .304 batting mark; which, with his 1934 and 1940 flailing, made him one of 13 men in all series history to go for .300 or better in three or more series.

Phil Cavarretta, the Cubs first-sacker and probably the most underrated man in the set, was the No. 1 ball-buster and came to the wire with a .423 mark, the second time he's run through a series at a snappy .400 or better. Now he's one of only eight hitters ever to turn the trick twice, and at the finish, some of the folks were wondering how come he wasn't wearing a Tiger uniform.

Aside from Greenberg's fireworks, it might be anybody in the Tiger lineup to knock the roof in at any moment. Yesterday, tall Paul Richards, the 37-year-old catcher, pounded out a pair of two-baggers to zip four runs across. The first of these whacks was a base-cleaner for three tallies in the first inning, in which the Tigers, after clubbing Borowy to the showers, continued to have fun against Paul Derringer until they'd chalked up five markers.

The game might just as well have ended there, Newhouse was hot in the clutches. He was never in real trouble and finished up by fanning 10 Cubs to run his total for the series up to 22. This was two more than the record for a seven game series shared by George Mullin of the 1909 Tigers, Walter Johnson in '24 and George Earnshaw of the 1931 Athletics.

The all-time high is 28 "whiffs" posted by Bill Dineen for the Boston Red Sox in 1903, when the series ran eight games. Those 10 strikeouts the Cubs were hit with yesterday left them with 48 for the series, a new seven-game high.

Besides Richards and Greenberg, it might have been Doc Cramer, the 40-year-old "youngster," who was just about the entire Detroit outfield. He chipped in with three safe blows yesterday to end up with 11 for the series, tying Cavarretta and third baseman Stan Hack of the Cubs in collecting hits.

In the field it was strictly no contest. The Cub flycatching trio of Handy Andy Pafko, who's now possibly the best center fielder in baseball pending Joe DiMaggio's return—Peanuts Lowrey and Bill Nicholson made the Bengal gardeners look slow in contrast. Nicholson, in addition, tied the seven-game series record by knocking in eight runs.

The series attracted more attention than in former classics. In spite of cold weather 333,457 fans paid $1,492,454, which with $100,000 from broadcasting rights, was a new all time high of $1,592,454. The players for the two series clubs, along with the first division outfits in both leagues, wound up with $475,714.50 as their end of the "take." The winning Tigers each will collect $6,123 and each Cub will get around $4,277, plus the radio cut.

The Cubs scored 29 runs. No other club ever counted so many, and still lost. Newhouse was slightly touched for 14 earned runs. No other elbow ever gave up that many and still won.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Wheat futures started higher again today but bullish enthusiasm were itself out and prices turned downward under the influence of profit-taking and the government's bearish crop report. Corn and oats also were weak most of the session because of the government's estimate of large crops of both feed grains and huge supplies held on farms.

Rye was firm most of the session. NEW CITY PLANNING COMMISSION TO BE SELECTED

COUNCIL PLANS PROGRESSIVE LEGISLATION

Zoning Ordinance Is To Be Adopted Here in Near Future

A planning commission is to be named for Washington C. H. and at the regular meeting of City Council Wednesday night, adjournment was taken until Friday night when the question will be taken up with a view to naming such a commission without delay.

Another matter receiving attention at the Wednesday night session was a zoning ordinance and building code that will mean a bigger and better city.

Early in the session Judge R. H. Sites presented a comprehensive report on fines, fees and forfeitures collected, including $1,098.20 for the month of September, and was roundly praised for his report.

City Manager Stambaugh recommended early adoption of a building code for the city, and a zoning ordinance that would cover all parts of the city.

Councilman Roy Baughn suggested that council name a planning commission, and Stambaugh said that such a commission would be of great benefit to the city, and heartily endorsed it, as did members of council who expressed themselves.

Baughn also suggested that it would be well to confer with the Chamber of Commerce and the County Planning Commission before the board is named for Washington C. H., and these two organizations will have representatives present Friday night, it was indicated.

In his report to council, Stambaugh spoke of having found and repaired the big leak that was running up pumping bills at the sewage disposal plant, and said the present pumpage is about one-third of what it was previously.

He reported patching work for the season near completion, and said street striping for the winter would start soon.

Application of a man who wishes to start a general delivery service in the city was mentioned, but no action taken.

Installation of 15 additional parking meters on the east side of Main Street from East Street north to the alley, was also announced by the city manager.

Request of Garrett Ramey for a 43 foot taxi-cab stand on South Fayette Street, occupying about four parking places, was announced, and Solicitor John B. Hill is to draw an ordinance accordingly.

As alley crossing between Elm and Oak streets, over the D.T. & I. Railroad was favored by council and the city manager, and action will be taken asking the D. T. & I. to build the crossing.

Chairman R. H. Sites told council that the city code should be brought up-to-date, as it had been six years since the ordinances had been placed in book form, or codified.

It was brought out during the meeting that the bus companies have no permit for a bus stand, here, but no action was taken.

Complaints of excessive smoke from the pumping station stack had been made by residents east of the plant, Stambaugh stated, and suggestion was made that the water company be asked to place a substantial extension to the stack to eliminate the smoke.

It was also stated that nearby residents were complaining about large quantities of dust from the Wilson concrete plant near the D. T. & I. railroad.

Solicitor Hill said that no temporary relief can be provided against improper buildings being erected in various parts of the city, and that a zoning ordinance must be enacted according to law to solve the problem.

Some glaring examples of violations that would come under a zoning ordinance, were cited.

DAVID S. CRAIG RESIGNS PLACE ON B. & L. BOARD

Seat of One of Organizers Of Institution Has Not Yet Been Filled

David S. Craig, for years one of the community's civic and business leaders today had taken another step toward complete retirement with his resignation as a member of the board of directors of The First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

As one of the organizers of the First Building and Loan Co. in December of 1922 he was one of the pioneers in exclusive home financing in Washington C. H. He was the president of that company, and when it was federalized in May of 1939, he continued as its head until he resigned as of January 1, 1945.

He had seen the institution grow from a modest beginning into one with assets approaching $1,000,000 with a record of service to the people of the community symbolized in comfortable homes.

With him at the head of the original company were C. Pearce Ballard, vice president; Glenn M. Pine, secretary; Rell G. Allen, attorney; and John Sheppard, George A. Robinson, Ben Jamison, George H. Hitchcock and Glenn B. Rodgers. Only two, Allen and Sheppard, remain with its successor association in an official capacity now. Three are dead and four have retired.

Arthur H. Finley was elevated to the presidency last January. There have been four secretaries since, Leonard Korn, R. Burris Tharp and Walter Rettig, the incumbent.

Allen is the present vice-president of the association and other members of the board are: Korn, Robert Meriwether and Sheppard. Craig's recently vacated seat on the board has not yet been filled and there was no indication as to when it would be, or by whom. Miss Marcia Highley is the assistant secretary-treasurer.

The board of directors, in accepting the resignation of Craig from the directorate, expressed deep regret and in their letter to him noted that "it (his resignation) brought home to us the distinctive part that you have played in the success of our association."

The letter of acceptance follows in full:
"It was with deep regret that the Board of Directors of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association accepted your resignation as director of this association. It brought home to us the distinctive part that you have played in the success of our Association, which we know is a true and tangible part. We can understand and appreciate your desire to be relieved of this responsibility, but we

ALUMNI QUEEN TO BE HONORED BY BAND FRIDAY

Formations Are Planned for Crowning Before Game; Half-time Celebration

All the alumni of Washington C. H. High School from the first graduating class in 1876 to the 1945 graduates will be honored in the first formation of the marching band at the Homecoming football game Friday night.

The customary spotlighted flag raising at the end of the field and the first appearance of the Hillsboro band will precede the WHS band's formation of '76 and '45 in recognition of the alumni.

The two sets of numbers will be made far apart and the formations held while the homecoming queen, Helen McCoy, is crowned. Before the coronation, Stephen C. Brown, the high school principal, will read the names of the 1876 graduating class—Mrs. Nettie Hagler Ballard of East Street, and Herbert Maynard and Ella Simpkins, both deceased.

At the half after the Hillsboro band show is done, the Washington band will make an HHS for Hillsboro fans and play "Across The Field," their school song.

A counter march into the center of the field to form a star, for a lights out formation with the star outlined with spotlights. The queen will be spotlighted in the center of the star while the band plays "Girl of my Dreams." The
